

Elmira Shokr Pour (Iran)

Elmira Shokr Pour is an artist and writer who lives in Iran.

she is known primarily for her work in the feminine spirit series , to show what is definition of feminine power.

she took various roles of woman characters in her painting, sometimes show them with holding mask,some talking with their eyes speechless and some of them are being part of this nature without face,its obvious that while her paintings are expressions of her own personal history and also reflection of the life of Persian women in general.

Elmira earliest works were painting with focus on inner feelings of women series,which explore woman emotions through her painting.

she paint her reality life which mixed with her hopes and dreams.

critical view of social and cultural issues,all her paintings and her published books are about femininity.

she used to speak with her thoughts and experience as an artist exploring the language of art .

Elmira's paintings become more international in 2013,when she won the first prize of international awards of ANIMA MUNDI art festival.

Elmira Shokr pour Tehran. Iran

International Art Festival

ANIMA MUNDI

Lithu

