Although, as he says, at this time he spends most part of the time in deal with other artists' works and projects, as well as it provides a high note to his own creation.

Why distinctive, special and wonderful is his creation?

There is clear color expression and expressive color combinations, we can see the purified style characteristic in this author works. The principle advantage of such work is the emotional integrity of the picture, as if improvised melody.

The artist chooses the landscape colorist symbolic expression of thought, which reflecting the distinctive worldview ideas. Many works were born in art symposiums in intimate contact with nature, rich color backgrounds contexts opens subtle aroma of musicianship works in harmony spaces. The bright areas of color segments vibrate and make spectator not only to watch but also to listen. The viewer has the opportunity to get closer to the creator's experiences, at the same time to get closer to his/her own souls vibrations and creative process.

It probably would be very difficult to count how many colors the artist uses the same picture, how he intertwines and mix pure color, sometimes hiding the deep layers, and sometimes opening up between them and forming spaces with a unique sound and movement. The artist invites the viewer to travel into created an emotional labyrinth path and survive together the mysteries of the creative secrets.
